

Colour in Local threatened species we're working to protect

Narracan Burrowing Crayfish

Burrowing crayfish live underground but breathe water through gills instead of air.

How do they do it?
Damp soil is all they need to breathe.

Scientific name:
Engaeus phyllocercus.

Status: Critically endangered.

Gippsland
Water

Caretakers for tomorrow